

THE CHRONICLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

December 13, 2024 Volume 71, Issue 08

URL : www.chronicle.com

Sr. No	Article	Link
1.	Higher Ed's Dubious Deal With Prison Health Care	https://www.chronicle.com/article/higher-eds-dubious-deal-with-prison-health-care
2.	A New Team of Campus Administrators Tries to Pacify Protests	https://www.chronicle.com/article/the-race-to-pacify-protesters
3.	They Punished the Protesters. Now No One Is Happy About It.	https://www.chronicle.com/article/a-punishing-year
4.	Trump's Vision for College Accreditation Could Shake Up the Sector	https://www.chronicle.com/article/trumps-vision-for-college-accreditation-could-shake-up-the-sector
5.	Why Did More College-Educated Young Men Vote for Trump This Year?	https://www.chronicle.com/article/why-did-more-college-educated-young-men-vote-for-trump-this-year
6.	Faculty and Staff Are Feeling Anxious, Depressed, and Burnt Out, Study Says	https://www.chronicle.com/article/faculty-and-staff-are-feeling-anxious-depressed-and-burnt-out-study-says
7.	Are Elite Colleges Circumventing the Supreme Court?	https://www.chronicle.com/article/are-elite-colleges-circumventing-the-supreme-court
8.	When Aspiring Authoritarians Seize Faculty Power	https://www.chronicle.com/article/when-aspiring-authoritarians-seize-faculty-power
9.	Cheaters Usually Do Win in the Classroom	https://www.chronicle.com/article/cheaters-usually-do-win-in-the-classroom
10.	Sick and Still on the Job	https://www.chronicle.com/article/sick-and-still-on-the-job