

Assume that  $a, b$  and  $k$  are positive integers that satisfy the following

$$a^2 + b^2 = k(1 + ab).$$

Prove that  $k$  cannot be an integer whose digits consist solely of 0s and 6s.

---