FOSTERING A COMMUNITY

Aspiring to create a home away from home, the Student Village has provisions to assist students at every stage of adapting to the residential experience and making the most out of it.

We train student mentors as residential assistants (RAs) to help students assimilate seamlessly into the student community, creating a tight-knit community as they transition and adjust to their new living arrangements. Students regularly host informal gatherings like dinners and coffee hours, enabling candid conversations, while Residential Clubs provide opportunities to explore and develop new hobbies.

Group Dynamics and Conflict Resolution Workshops led by RAs and the faculty are in place to empower students and assist them in effectively resolving interpersonal issues.

ENCOURAGING GROWTH

We appoint and train Residential mentors (RMs) to lead Special Interest Groups (SIGs), focusing on stress and time management initiatives. RMs oversee bi-weekly Self-Reflection Circles that involve students sharing their personal goals and progress.

We organise the Leadership and Personal Development Speaker Series with successful alumni or guest speakers to boost morale and provide guidance. We also hold Goal-setting and Habit-formation Workshops centering around developing leadership skills, improving self-motivation, and setting long-term personal goals.

To ensure our students' mental wellbeing, we have created a Mental Health Gatekeeper Team, trained by counsellors at the Office of Dean of Students, to recognise and address signs of mental distress.

PROMOTING ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AND INTELLECTUAL CURIOSITY

We appoint senior students as Academic Mentors (AMs) to offer subject-specific guidance, share their expertise, and host study sessions regularly. Supported by the Learning Community, AMs also conduct Study-skills Workshops to share study strategies and learning tips. AMs and tutors are available on-site to assist residents with coursework and address their academic queries or concerns. Furthermore, we conduct events like Debates and Hackathons to stimulate intellectual curiosity and encourage dialogue across disciplines.

BUILDING SKILLS FOR THE FUTURE

Experienced students and faculty step in as Professional Development Mentors (PDMs) to offer career-building and life-skills sessions within the residencies.

They enable students to practice interviews with feedback and join Career Groups for job-search support.

Furthermore, RMs conduct Life Skills Workshops involving practical sessions on budgeting, cooking, filing taxes, or DIY workmanship to prepare students for independent living post-college as they transition to a self-reliant lifestyle while pursuing their goals.

ENHANCING SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Our students have set up a Civic Engagement Committee (CEC), which plans and leads initiatives focused on service and civic engagement. They execute volunteer-based village outreach projects to work with local neighbourhoods and NGOs on specific community needs, such as environmental clean-up and food drives. The CEC also organises Volunteering Day, in partnership with local NGOs, for a day of community service in which all residents can participate. The Learning Community also facilitates Social Change Leadership Workshops for training students on effectively leading change in communities, including developing advocacy and organising skills. These approaches foster awareness and compassion, empowering social change in the broader community.

CULTIVATING CROSS-CULTURAL UNDERSTANDING

The RLP organises cultural festivals to develop an appreciation of different cultural heritages, with food, music, and performances. They conduct workshops around Unconscious Bias and Cultural Sensitivity to help students build awareness and respect for different cultural perspectives and ways of living.
