Personal Statement

The Personal Statement is an essay that speaks about you. It is one of the criteria we use to evaluate your application.

Please write on any one of the topics below in a maximum of 700 words, telling us about your beliefs, values and aspirations.

- Pick up an idea or subject on which you have a strong opinion/ viewpoint. What is the opinion you hold? Why is it important to you? How have you acted on your ideas?
- Which of your personal qualities or attributes makes you a valuable member of your class at school? What could others learn from you? Tell us about an occasion at school when you have demonstrated these qualities or attributes.
- Visit the Ahmedabad University website and select information that interests you or that you find important. Why is this idea of value to you? How is it going to benefit you in your education?
- Is there an event or incident related to your life that has helped you grow, challenged you or motivated you? What was the event? How has it changed you or influenced you?

We expect you to write an original Personal Statement in your own words. Do not copy text from any source. If you want to include words or sentences from a source, please cite the source. If you do not cite the source, it will be treated as a case of plagiarism and you will be penalised for it. Copying a Personal Statement from another student or any other source, or allowing another student to copy your Personal Statement is treated as academic dishonesty and will disqualify your application from admission.

Please attach your Personal Statement at the end of this form.
