Our graduates achieve deep understanding of all the core functions of a business from Accounting to Technology and Operations Management, from Data Analytics to Sustainability. Students are trained to be industry-ready – from extended work with industry during the year-long Route Camp project, required summer internship at companies, interactions with company executives, and talks by industry leaders.

AMSOM faculty, who have studied in well-known universities in India and abroad, bring valuable industry and academic experience to the classroom. In highly interactive sessions, current business issues are examined, and frameworks applied, to diagnose business problems and propose feasible, sustainable solutions. Instructors use effective teaching tools, including Harvard Business Cases and Simulations, for engaged learning, while students undertake projects based on current business data, including from Bloomberg, to study markets and companies. MBA at AMSOM prepares responsible business leaders who contribute to a sustainable world.
